

GRADE CROSSING AT LEE SCENE OF FATAL CRASH

HOT WAVE IS SEVERE TODAY IN MID-WEST

Torrid Temperature Prevails From Rockies to the Atlantic

BY UNITED PRESS

An excessive July heat wave, extending from the eastern coast to the Rocky Mountains and apparently centering in four midwestern states, brought suffering to millions of people today.

On the Pacific coast a six day heat wave apparently was ending, in the Rocky Mountain regions cool weather prevailed, the extreme south enjoyed a moderate but not unseasonable heat wave, and in the east, southeast and midwest the situation was severe.

The tabulation of deaths at 10 A. M. (CST):

	Heat	Drownings
Nebraska	3
Central Illinois	2
Chicago	1	1
Ohio	1	2
Wisconsin	1	3
Iowa	2
Michigan	1
Rhode Island	1
Maine	1
Totals	8	11

Heavy Crop Damage

The principal crop damage was reported in Illinois, where a long drought and the intense heat of this and last week caused corn to shrivel up in the fields. Crop damage also was reported in other north central states and in Canada.

Weather forecasts were only slightly encouraging in most states and in numerous instances predictions were temperatures again would reach or surpass the 100 degree mark.

In Chicago, where an all time July 18 mark of 100 degrees was set yesterday, the forecast was for slightly cooler weather, but the meteorologists added "maybe." More than a dozen heat prostrations were reported yesterday, nine of them at one beach.

The lack of lake breezes, which make 100 degree temperatures in Chicago a rarity, were blamed for yesterday's high mark. One government thermometer showed a high of 98.8 degrees while another, nearer the center of the city, went to 100.4.

Corn Stand Ruined

Throughout the midwest, and especially in Iowa and Illinois, it was reported that the new wave of heat was causing much crop damage and in the vicinity of Canton, Ill., where the temperature yesterday was 102, a prolonged drought has almost ruined the corn stand.

Some of the other cities where excessively high temperatures were reported were: Omaha, 106; Kansas City, 101; Des Moines, 104; Concordia, Kan., 106; Phillipsburg, Kan., 113; Dodge City, Ia., 104; Peoria, 102; St. Louis, 100; Keokuk, Ia., 102.

EAST FEELS HOT WAVE

New York, July 19.—(UP)—After nearly two weeks of generally comfortable weather, the thermometer was on the rise again today in the eastern states.

New England and other areas as far inland as Cleveland and much of the southeastern part of the country suffered from the heat. Exceptionally high humidity made the atmosphere unusually oppressive.

The Boston area was affected to the greatest extent. Four heat deaths and six drownings were reported from various parts of Massachusetts. New Hampshire had one heat victim, and another drowning attributed to the hot weather was reported in Connecticut.

Although numerous prostrations were reported in New York, the only fatality occurred in Albany.

The highest temperatures reported yesterday were: Boston, 94; Pittsburgh, 94; Washington, 96; Cleveland, 96.

COOLER IN FAR WEST

Los Angeles, Calif., July 19.—(UP)—Lowering temperatures and general cloudiness along the coast today promised to end a sweltering heat wave that has claimed nine lives in southern California in the last six days.

A high pressure area along the ocean, coupled with a low pressure region in Arizona, were forecast for today as indications that the cooling sea breezes would resume.

Among the maximum temperatures recorded during the hottest days in various southern California cities were: Calexico, Brawley and El Centro, 105 to 110; Indio, 109; Ontario, 103; Riverside, 100; San Bernardino, 102; Colton, 103; Rialto, 100; Redlands, 100; Pomona, 91.

At the mining town of Bouse, Ariz., the mercury reached 119.

Some Oddities In Wire News Today From Various Parts

WHAT A NIGHT!

Chicago, July 19.—(AP)—"What a night," James Seriento, a mechanic, was saying to himself today. Meaning last night.

Seriento was kidnapped by two men, robbed, beaten when he resisted his captors, shot in the left hand and finally tossed from the bandits' car.

WHAT'S A SOLARIUM?

Chicago, July 19.—(AP)—Lake Michigan bathers, if Health Commissioner Arnold H. Kegeel has his way, may soon be able to absorb the sun's rays without the hindrance of a bathing suit.

Dr. Kegeel yesterday asked for the establishment of solariums at all beaches, one for each sex.

"A solarium," the commissioner said, "is nothing but a stretch of sand with a high board fence around it."

MUST BARK FURTHER AWAY.

Santa Monica, Cal., July 19.—(AP)—Because concussion from the big guns of the Pacific Fleet 30 miles at sea has been cracking plaster, breaking dishes and assailing the ears of residents here, the bulldogs of the deep henceforth will do their barking ten miles farther out.

Captain Edward C. Kaibfus, Chief of Staff of the Fleet battlefleet division, so decided yesterday after visiting the home of Charles Firtman and noting the damage. Firtman and a group of his neighbors had complained.

COURT WILL WAIT.

Chicago, July 19.—(AP)—Mrs. Mildred Heinrichs said Charles Eoff extorted $10 from her, so police arrested him.

"He told me he wanted $10 to help bury his mother," she testified before Justice Harry Porter.

Eoff was fined $100.

"But I haven't got it," said Eoff. "Work it out in jail," said the court.

"Don't you wait a while?" Eoff pleaded. "My mother will pay the fine."

"You mean the mother you 'buried'?" asked the court.

"Yes," said Eoff. "She's down in Danville."

The court agreed to wait.

BABIES MIXED UP.

Chicago, July 19.—(AP)—The Charles Bambergers and the William Watkins may have the wrong babies.

Mr. Bamberger wants the one he has now even if the hospital tag says it belongs to the Watkins.

Both babies were born June 30th. Both were boys. It was Mrs. Watkins' first and Mrs. Bamberger's third.

Both babies and both mothers did nicely and all were discharged from the hospital on the same day, July 9th.

Three days later, Mr. Watkins was personally supervising the bathing of his son, christened Charles Evans Watkins. On the baby's back was the piece of hospital identification tape.

Half an hour later, Mr. Watkins stormed into the Bamberger home, crying "you've got the wrong baby. Yours is mine."

A nurse had just bathed the Bamberger baby and removed the tag. But she found it and it read: "Watkins."

Hospital authorities said they would make blood tests to determine the parentage.

Mrs. Conan Doyle O. K.'s Spirit Note

London, July 19.—(AP)—Lady Doyle today approved in general a message received by a medium at Peterborough, Ontario, named Mrs. Mary Heron, reputedly from the late Sir Arthur Conan Doyle.

She said that she was in her husband's study yesterday morning inspecting his papers, as the medium said, although she was not praying as indicated in the message.

It was the first time she had been in the room since Sir Arthur's death and she agreed with the message that the room was the one where she discussed with Sir Arthur all matters pertaining to their faith in spiritualism.

WEALTHY CHICAGO CLUBMAN, IN EFFORT TO MURDER YOUNG LADY, SHOT BY POLICEMAN: HE MAY DIE

Chicago, July 19.—(AP)—The prominent John H. Roemer, wealthy clubman and well known corporation lawyer, as shot and probably fatally wounded early today by a policeman in the busy uptown section of Sheridan Road, Broadway and Montrose Avenues.

Roemer was holding the point of a pistol against the head of a young woman when officer Edward Strandberg ran up, deflecting the aim just as the 60-year-old attorney pulled

MAN SOUGHT AS LINGLE'S SLAYER CAPTURED TODAY

Thomas Abbott Gives the Police Hot Chase: Foster Arrived

Chicago, July 19.—(AP)—Thomas Abbott, who has been secretly sought as the actual slayer of Alfred (Jake) Lingle, was captured early today in a spectacular chase in which hundreds lined the streets, cheering.

Abbott, driving the same type of automobile used in the recent attempted assassination of Jack Zuta, led a police fluster squad at ten-mile chase before he was caught at the door of his apartment.

The chase started at Diverse Avenue and extended north as far as Rogers Park, then south again. Several times in doubling back on the trail, the Abbott and police cars sped up and down North Clark street.

Hundreds of persons, recognizing the machines by their speed and constant reappearance, lined the streets and cheered.

Many shots were fired by the officers. A gun was found in the Abbott machine.

Denied Lingle Slaying.

Abbott, who was accompanied during the chase by his wife, denied having any part in the murder of Lingle, the Tribune reporter who was killed June 9, or in the attack on Jack Zuta. There was a bullet hole in the back of the Abbott car which police believe was made by officers who fired on the machine from which the attack on Zuta was made.

They said they did not believe any of the shots fired in last night's chase struck the machine.

Foster Returned.

Frank Foster, gangster under indictment for the murder of Lingle, returned from California in custody of two detectives today and was rushed to the Criminal Court building for examination.

Foster was taken from a Santa Fe train as it passed in the railroad yards near Western Avenue. A police squad car met him there and the gunman was whisked under heavy guard to the court house a short distance away.

The gangster has admitted he once owned the revolver found beside the body of Lingle. The investigators want to know to whom he gave the gun.

Mrs. Foster, who was already aboard the train when Foster and his guards boarded it at San Bernardino, Calif., left it at Joliet this morning.

Stray Dogs Being Dumped Into City

Stray dogs are being hauled into Dixon and dumped on front porches or turned loose within the city limits, Chief of Police J. D. Van Bibber announced this morning.

The chief illustrated his charge by relating an incident of yesterday when a Dixon woman brought a dog to him and complained that an automobile had stopped in front of her home, and an occupant jumped out of the car, threw the dog on the porch and the machine then sped away.

From reports it appears that farmers who have stray dogs running at large, rather than pay for the vaccination against rabies required in the county quarantine rules, are resorting to the hauling of these dogs into Dixon.

Chief Van Bibber will transfer all of these reports to State Veterinarian H. R. Nesbitt who is in charge of the quarantine in Lee county. Citizens who witness the throwing of dogs from automobiles are requested to take the license plate numbers and by this method the practice will be stopped and the offenders prosecuted.

Youthful Glider Designer Killed

Wichita, Kas., July 19.—(AP)—Ward Braley, 18-year-old plane designer, was injured fatally last night when he fell 100 feet in a glider of his own construction at a field east of Wichita. He died in a hospital shortly after the accident.

In 1928 there were 180,000 full-blooded Indians in the United States.

Hunter Bros. Are On Way To Movies

St. Louis, Mo., July 19.—(UP)—The Hunter brothers, John and Kenneth, holders of the world's record for sustained airplane flight, hopped off here at 8:45 A. M. today for Tulsa, Okla., first stop on their cross country flight to California.

John and Kenneth, accompanied by their manager and two brothers, are en route to Hollywood.

They expected to reach Tulsa at noon and continue their westward journey after refueling. Three planes are in the party.

DIXON "ENDURERS" COMPLETED 125 HOURS IN TREE AT 1 P. M. TODAY; ARE MUCH ENCOURAGED

Showed No Inclination Or Desire To Come Down This Noon

Encouraged by several cash donations dropped in the box at the base of the tree in which they are seeking to establish an endurance tree-sitting record, two Dixon boys—Billy Stout, 13, and Casper Blimling, Jr., 14, who "took to the trees" Monday morning at 8 o'clock today noon showed no inclination to come down. At 1 o'clock this afternoon they had completed 125 hours in the tree back of the barn on the Abram Ackert property, 1223 Third street, and had been viewed by hundreds of visitors from all parts of the city, who motored to the site.

The lads had carefully fixed their "residence" in the tree before essaying their stunt. Fairly comfortable benches had been installed and the boys while away the hours playing games, etc., while their needs are supplied by matchful "refueling crews."

By United Press.

The juvenile endurance craze which has spread over the country and included almost everything from tree sitting to kite flying just about reached the limit today when timorous youngsters in New Jersey started a contest to see who could hold water in his mouth the longest.

The approach of Saturday night and Sunday brought new problems for many of the scores of youngsters perched in the trees of the east, midwest and south, but they were ready with new solutions and the fun, which now also has developed a serious side, continued.

One Boy May Die.

The serious aspect developed when boys began falling out of their trees. One has been hurt so seriously he may die and others have suffered broken arms and ribs. As a result, police have stopped tree sitting in several cities; mothers in some others.

New Orleans reported its initial injury when Stuart Brehm, 11, only one hour behind the local champion, crashed from a low-hanging branch of his cottonwood tree while trying to return his dog, on another limb. Stuart had been in the air 53½ hours and had arranged for a priest to conduct a special tree-sitting mass for him Sunday so that he would not need to interrupt his record attempt.

One Quit in Anger.

When his ground crew—a small sister—sent him up a drink of water in a dirty glass, Edmond Kennedy Tuscaloosa, Fla., was so angered that he dropped from his tree and abandoned all hopes for the endurance sitting title.

Veteran tree-sitters of Jackson Heights, N. Y., expressed derisive scorn today on learning that their more timorous playmates were trying to attract attention with a contest to see who could hold water in his mouth the longest.

The Aurora (Ill.) City Electrical Department issued an order against tree sitting within a safe distance of high tension electric wires. Two boys sitting were reported to have been literally shocked out of their leafy bowers when a limb touched a live wire.

Irish Free State Traffic Tied Up

Dublin, Irish Free State, July 19.—(AP)—Rail traffic over all the Free State was threatened today by a strike of employees which paralyzed the suburban train service out of Dublin.

More than 600 railwaymen yesterday went on a strike in sympathy with more than 100 striking omnibus men seeking recognition of their union. Passenger service to the west and south of Ireland was threatened.

Some omnibuses have been manned with strike-breakers, but these have been fired upon in some localities, and railway workers at Limerick and the Dublin docks have refused to handle goods consigned to the bus company, which is controlled by the Great Southern Railway.

Hundred of men walking out of the Westland Row terminus of the railway began the strike. The entire southeastern section of the railway line subsequently was closed to traffic because of the disturbance.

Second and Third of Montana Bank Robbers and Slayers Put To Death On Gallows This Morn

Canon City, Colo., July 19.—(AP)—George J. Abshier and Howard L. Royston went to their deaths on the State prison gallows last night for the slaying of four men in connection with the robbery of the First National Bank of Lamar in May, 1928.

The double hanging left Jake Fleagle, a fugitive, the only member of the small band of ruthless killers who were sought throughout the United States for more than a year after the robbery. Ralph Fleagle, reputed bandit leader, was hanged a fortnight ago.

Prison officials asked the condemned slayers, recently baptized in the Catholic faith, if they had any preference in the order in which they died.

"I'll go," Abshier said, and was taken to Royston's cell for a farewell.

"I'll wait for you on the bosom of Christ," Abshier said, his flow bandit. He was pronounced dead at 9:55 p. m., Royston dying an hour later.

In the Lamar holdup, A. N. Parris, president of the bank, and his son, John, were slain by the quartet. Two tellers were kidnapped and later the body of one, E. A. Kossinger, was found. He had been murdered to still his tongue, it was revealed later.

SPEEDBOAT HIT YACHT HURLING GIRL TO DEATH

Tragedy Ends Pleasure Jaunt Of Young People In Chicago

Chicago, July 19.—(AP)—A saucy speedboat, the "Whoopee," carrying a party of six young people and a pilot, crashed amidships into the 14-ton yacht, "Scarab," off the Rogers Park beach in Lake Michigan last night, catapulting Miss Betty Ayres, 18 years old, to her death.

Six other members of the party, as well as the four men aboard the yacht, reached shore safely, although Benjamin Marshall, Jr., 21-year-old son of a wealthy Winnetka architect, was severely injured.

Aboard the "Scarab," an auxiliary yawl whose home port is Larchmont, N. Y., was the craft's owner, George M. Pulver, wealthy Washington mortgage broker, Freeman Higgins, New York, and a crew of two.

The speedboat had been rented by young Marshall and was piloted by Barton Webster. Aboard in addition to Miss Ayres and Marshall were Miss Dorothy Marshall, 14; William J. De Riemer, 18, son of Dr. Albert De Riemer; Robert Shotwell, 16, son of Alfred H. Shotwell, millionaire manufacturer; and Miss Janet Schreinn.

Carried No Lights

Members of the Marshall party said the Pulver yawl carried no running lights. The collision occurred about half a mile off shore.

Following the crash the yawl began to settle, but the "Whoopee" remained afloat a few minutes. A dingy was thrown over the side of the yacht and Pulver, Higgins and the two sailors jumped in and made their way safely ashore.

A nearby boat took members of the Marshall party aboard. Young Marshall was taken to a hospital, where an emergency operation was performed early today. Physicians said he would recover.

Members of the party related that Marshall was hurt when he struck the side of the yawl in diving after Miss Ayres, whose body was recovered by Coast guardsmen.

Had Borrowed Car

The car which Snyder was using on his trip to Dubuque, he had borrowed from a woman residing at Bradley, Illinois, he stated when arrested and this story was confirmed later yesterday when Sheriff Miller telephoned the city marshal at Bradley.

Snyder is said to have told the officers that a few weeks ago, he was arrested in Vermillion county while running a load of alcohol, and paid a heavy fine and lost the automobile he was driving.

Mrs. W. L. Preston Passed Away Friday

Mrs. Sarah Mae Preston, life of Walter L. Preston, passed away at the family residence, 809 Brinton Avenue, yesterday afternoon at 3:15 ending an illness of several months duration. She was born in Pinckneyville, Ill., July 13, 1891, and had made her home in Dixon and vicinity for the past 14 years.

Funeral services will be conducted at the First Methodist church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. Turley Stephenson, officiating, and entombment will be in the Oakwood Memorial Mausoleum. The casket will be open at the home for friends wishing to view the remains. The obituary will be published later.

The ladies of the G. A. R. Circle will assist in the services.

Mother Gives Blood To Save Son's Life

Benton, Ill., July 19.—(AP)—A mother gave her blood to save her son's life and as a result Walter Ward Christopher youth, is slowly recovering from an extreme case of typhoid fever. His mother supplied the blood in a blood transfusion when doctors said it would be the only chance of saving the boy's life.

Kankakee Man, Arrested Here Thursday: Is Returned To Jail

Fred Snyder, Kankakee bill poster, who was arrested by federal prohibition agents Thursday night and turned over to Sheriff Ward Miller, was taken into County Court yesterday afternoon at 4:30 on an information charging him with possession and transportation of intoxicating liquor. His bond was fixed at $3,000 and his hearing continued until Monday, after which he was returned to the county jail.

Gerald Michels, of Sunnyside, a suburb of Kankakee, who was taken in custody with Snyder, was released from the county jail at noon yesterday and started on his return home. Michels stated that he was unaware of the contents of the car until he had left home Thursday evening to take a ride with Snyder.

Michels claimed to be seeking employment on his northern trip.

Admitted "Racket"

Snyder is said to have told the federal prohibition officers that he has been in the "booze hustling" racket for the past 18 months, despite the fact that when arrested he displayed several letters of recommendation bearing signatures of Kankakee county and state officials.

The majority of these letters were addressed to a judge and the county prosecutor at Dubuque, Iowa, where, according to Snyder's story, his sweetheart, the mother of three children, has been incarcerated in the county jail on a forged charge. He had made restitution of the forged checks, according to his story and had been successful in bringing about her release from the county jail, which was to have taken place yesterday. Snyder was enroute to Dubuque with eleven gallons of alcohol and five pints of synthetic whiskey when arrested. The liquor, according to his story, was to have been "planted" in the woods or under a culvert in East Dubuque while he visited Dubuque officials who had aided him in securing the release of his sweetheart, and was then to be presented to those officers, who would be required to go after it.

Had Borrowed Car

The car which Snyder was using on his trip to Dubuque, he had borrowed from a woman residing at Bradley, Illinois, he stated when arrested and this story was confirmed later yesterday when Sheriff Miller telephoned the city marshal at Bradley.

Snyder is said to have told the officers that a few weeks ago, he was arrested in Vermillion county while running a load of alcohol, and paid a heavy fine and lost the automobile he was driving.

INDEES TO POLO.

The Dixon Independents baseball team will go to Polo Sunday afternoon for the fourth game of a series with the U. S. Royals. Dixon took the first two games by scores of 5 to 1 and 2 to 0, the Royals taking the third by a 6 to 2 count.

Eddie Burr of Rockford will hurl for the Royals with Clark catching. Petty will pitch for Dixon with Weeks catching. Joe Liewald will appear in the Independent lineup and a large crowd of local fans will accompany the team.

TOURISTS HAD CRASH.

Miss Mary Kay and Andrew Ferral of Gary, Ind., were taken to the Dixon public hospital last night about 9 o'clock suffering from injuries sustained in an automobile accident east of Ashton on the Lincoln Highway. The two young people were members of a party from Gary who were motoring to Yellowstone park.

About four miles east of Ashton a Chicago car attempted to pass the Gary car, sideswiping the latter machine and throwing it from the pavement into the ditch. Miss Kay was suffering from concussion and bruises.

Terse Items of News Gathered in Dixon During Day

GRASS FIRE THIS NOON.

The fire department responded to an alarm at 12:30 this noon going to West First street where a grass fire was extinguished.

FINISH WHEAT HARVEST.

W. A. Schuler returned a few days ago from his wheat farm in Oklahoma, where they put 6336 bushels of wheat in one elevator in seven and one-half days, with a combine, 260 acres. Two men ran the combine and one man the truck.

MUCH WATER USED.

Supt. Glenn Coe of the Dixon Water Co. stated today that the pumping station reached its record production yesterday, when it pumped 1,085,000 gallons of water. This was the first time in its history that the station touched the million-gallon mark.

102 ABOVE ON STREET.

The mercury in the big Tycoes thermometer at the Sullivan pharmacy stood at the 102 mark at 1 o'clock this afternoon. This is as high as the heat waves have been able to chase the indicator in the past week.

One week ago today it registered 102 and at the same hour yesterday afternoon the weather glass measured the same.

OTTAWA HERE SUNDAY.

The Reynolds Wire Company baseball team will meet the Ottawa Moose at the Independent field on Van Buren avenue and Eight street Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Miller, McClintock and Condon will form the battery for the wire weavers, while Ward and Cunio will perform for the visitors. A large delegation of fans will accompany the Ottawa team to Dixon.

DONATES MOWING.

Boy Pilot Found

With careful patience, the rescuers of Frank Goldsborough, 19-year-old pilot, are pictured here as they trudged through three miles of dense woodlands, carrying on a stretcher of coats the injured body of the young flyer. The unusual stamina of the boy aviator, who is shown at the left in a close-up view, enabled him to survive eighteen hours in which, painfully injured, he lay pinned beneath his fallen plane awaiting help. His condition is described as critical. He is holder of the junior transcontinental flight record.

about the body. She was still at the hospital under observation today but was considerably improved. Mr. Ferrell's injuries were dressed at the hospital here. The Gary car was towed to an Ashton garage. The occupants of the Chicago car were not injured and their car was slightly damaged.

New York's Mayor For Housecleaning

New York, July 19—(AP)—A "house cleaning" of his administration has been ordered by Mayor James J. Walker. The Mayor's action follows widespread investigations by Federal and county district attorneys into alleged irregularities in the Board of Standards and Appeals in the granting of garage permits, and the department of Docks with respect to pier leases. The Dock Department was placed under fire through disclosures which resulted in the indictment of former County Judge W. Bernard Vause of Brooklyn, who is now on trial in Federal court. It was charged that Vause, who resigned after he was indicted, had received a fee of $250,000 for getting a lease on Hudson river pier space for the United American Line. William E. Walsh, chairman of the Board of Standards and Appeals, resigned after he had been indicted for accepting a gratuity. This was preceded by indictment of William F. Doyle, former veterinarian, whose practice before the Board of Standards and Appeals was said to have been so lucrative that it brought him about $2,000,000 in fees in less than three years.

Judge Of Federal Court Has Resigned

Chicago, July 19—(AP)—The resignation of Judge George T. Page, from the United States Circuit Court of Appeals effective Oct. 1, was confirmed in Washington today. Judge Page is 71 and is to retire. Judge Page, formerly president of both the Illinois and American Bar Associations, was appointed to the federal bench by President Wilson in 1919. He was born in Springfield, Illinois, in 1859 and began the practice of law in Peoria in 1883. No mention was made as to who would succeed Judge Page on the Court of Appeals.

Blind Beggar Is Told To Lay Off

Chicago, July 19—(UP)—Russell Sycovett, blind beggar, was ordered today to ring up no more fares in his tin cup. The police decided his was too lucrative a profession. Sergt. Patrick Byrne arrested the beggar yesterday and informed the court today Sycovett, after three years' begging, possesses a "fine home and automobile, and I learned he has been sending $35 a week to his parents in Danville, Ill." Sycovett and his wife were dismissed when they promised to quit begging.

927 New Laws Enacted During Congress Session

Washington, July 19—(AP)—A total of 927 laws was enacted in the first two sessions of the Seventy-first Congress out of 19,284 measures introduced. Of these 655 originated in the House and 272 in the Senate. The 655 House bills, however, included five omnibus pension measures containing 2,512 House bills and 907 Senate bills, the latter added to the House bills as amendments. If these had been considered separately, the grand total of laws enacted would be 4,341, of which 3,167 were originally House bills and 1,179 were Senate bills. Congress measures met with the disapproval of President Hoover, who vetoed four by message and three by failing to sign them after Congress adjourned. One of the bills vetoed by message, proposing increased pensions for Spanish-American war veterans, was enacted over the veto. A total of 14,047 bills was introduced by House members, and 5,337 by Senators. The House passed 470 of the bills and the Senate approved 265 Senate bills all of which failed of final enactment. Senate committees reported favorably on 1,163 measures and 1,335 bills received the approval of House committees. The 927 new laws resulting from the special and first regular sessions compare with 993 laws passed in a similar period by the Seventieth Congress, 896 in the Sixty-ninth Congress, 393 in the Sixty-Eighth Congress, 152 in the Sixty-Seventh Congress and 121 in the Sixty-Sixth Congress.

State Abandons Its Ballistic Expert

Chicago, July 19—(AP)—The State's hope to convict an accused murderer solely on the basis of ballistic evidence faded today and prosecutors asked that the case of Frank Debono be dismissed with leave to reinstate. Debono was indicted for the murder of Walter L. Wakefield, who with Frank Del Re and Joseph Special were slain in the "little massacre" at the Blue Hour cafe Easter Sunday. The state's only evidence was the testimony of ballistic experts that the fatal bullets were shot from a revolver found afterward in Debono's possession.

Robins Buy Toledo Southpaw Pitcher

Brooklyn, N. Y., July 19—(UP)—The Brooklyn club has obtained Freddie Heimach, pitcher of the Toledo American Association club, for cash and an optional player. It was announced today. Heimach is a former Yankee pitcher. He has won 11 games and lost five this season with Toledo. He will report to Brooklyn Monday. Name of the player to be sent on option to Toledo will be announced tomorrow. Cash consideration was not stated.

SCORES KILLED AND INJURED IN KOREAN TYPHOON

Warnings of Approach Of Storm Prevented Larger Losses

Tokyo, July 19—(AP)—Thirty dead, scores missing and injured, and immense property damage was the known toll today of the typhoon and rainstorm which swept over the Loochoo and Kishiu islands in the southern part of the empire yesterday. Thousands of persons were made homeless when the storm traveling 100 miles an hour, destroyed hundreds of dwellings. The wind swept over the islands, crossed the straits and roared into Korea, leaving destruction in its path. A train was wrecked and 20 persons injured, and reports said a village of 300 was buried in a landslide loosened by the heavy downpour. On the water the casualties were believed far greater than on the islands. Hundreds of boats were smashed and sunk, some carrying their crews to death. The death toll would have been far greater, it was believed, except for the fact warnings of the storm's approach had been broadcast the previous day. Dispatches from Fusan, Korean seaport, said the storm struck there at noon leveling homes and causing panic before continuing inland undiminished. Electric plants were crippled and communication interrupted, making it difficult to learn the extent of the storm's fury. Most transportation systems were paralyzed, a standstill because bridges had covered roads and railway tracks.

Radio-Directed Rum Fleet Being Sought

New York, July 19—(UP)—Presence of a great rum fleet operating along the Atlantic seaboard under direction of powerful shore radio stations was disclosed today by arrest of seven men and seizure of four radio stations in the fashionable Long Island district. Official revealed that a raid last night conducted by between 25 and 50 agents was but the start of a campaign against radio stations which direct maneuvers of the rum fleet. There may be 90 such radio stations, it was said.

Truck Driver Fell Asleep: Was Killed

Quincy, Ill., July 19—(AP)—Theodore Urbas, believed to be from St. Louis, was crushed to death under his motor truck when it struck the guard rail on Bay Creek bridge two miles east of Pittsfield at 3 A. M. today. The truck turned over and caught fire. Urbas, driver for the Anderson Trucking Company operating between Quincy and St. Louis, left St. Louis Friday afternoon. He is thought to have fallen asleep while driving.

Collapsing Wall Killed Workman

Rockford, Ill., July 19—(UP)—One man was killed, two were seriously hurt, and nine others narrowly escaped injury when a wall of the Latham Park ice house collapsed late Friday. George Swick, 46, was crushed to death under the heavy timbers. G. B. Sweeney, Long Island, Ill., and William Devine, Rockford, internally hurt.

Sunshine Class Picnic Greatly Enjoyed

Thursday, July 17th was an ideal picnic day. The Sunshine class members were closely yoked at a long table which was laden with a great variety of good things to eat, including chicken and noodles. Protection from the warm rays of a midsummer sun was afforded by a large tree with its wide-spreading branches. Mirth and merry chat made pleasant diversion. Later in the afternoon members of the social committee served delicious apple pie a la mode, and the refreshing ice cream quickly disappeared. Mrs. Irey at 1503 Third Street was hostess, and she received a rising vote of thanks for the use of her lawn and for what she contributed to make the picnic a success. Announcement was given for the next picnic, August 21st, with Mrs. C. Spielman, 706 Forest Avenue.

Peoria Woman Is Not Belle Gunness

Peoria, Ill., July 19—(UP)—Reports that Mrs. Belle Gunness, LaPorte, Ind., woman who has been accused of murdering 15 men 22 years ago for their insurance, was in Peoria had been exploded today with the identification of Mrs. Jones B. Smith of Guilford, Miss. Mrs. Jones, who through an attorney and friends established that the report she was Mrs. Gunness was erroneous, was taken into custody for a time yesterday by deputy sheriffs. She was released immediately upon the identification. The deputies at first said they were informed by New Orleans authorities to take the woman into custody but later it was learned that the tip came from local persons. Meanwhile in Jackson, Miss., where Mrs. Gunness was reported to be living, authorities were unable to find her and said they believed the whole case was based on mistaken identity.

Home Brewers Safe In St. Louis, Pledge

St. Louis, July 19—(UP)—Candidates for Prosecuting Attorney here were on record today as saying they would not molest persons who make and consume home brew. At a mass meeting of Republicans last night, Mortimer Foscan, speaking for his father, said nobody need fear they will be disturbed if they drink home brew when they return from work. Frank W. Fania, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney and candidate for promotion, said that six years ago he decided the home brew question—in favor of home brew makers.

School Teachers To Get Their Pay

Chicago, July 19—(UP)—The 13,000 vacationing Chicago school teachers whose salaries have not been paid for months, some of them not since Jan. 1, will receive their long overdue checks next Tuesday, according to an announcement by Lewis E. Myers, chairman of the financial relief committee of the Board of Education. Myers, who is at Lake Geneva, Wis., announced last night that his committee had completed negotiations for the sale of $3,000,000 worth of 1930 tax anticipation warrants and that immediately after the board meets Monday the checks will be mailed out.

Shell Co. Allows Suit Dismissal

Springfield, Ill., July 19—(UP)—Permission to dismiss the Shell Petroleum Company's suit involving $547,562.85 paid the state under the invalid 1927 gas tax law was received by Attorney General Oscar E. Carlstrom here today. Dismissal of the Shell Company's suit brings the total amount of money released and ready for distribution to county's to nearly $5,000,000. Five suits are still pending against the tax collections, all of which are expected to be dismissed within the near future.

PEORIAN DROWNED

Peoria, Ill., July 19—(UP)—Henry A. Binkley, 51, was drowned while bathing in the Illinois river last night.

BUT ONE NORRIS WILL APPEAR IN NEBRASKA POLL

Supreme Court Justice Bars Grocery Clerk Of Same Name

Lincoln, Neb., July 19—(AP)—The name "George W. Norris" will appear only once on the Republican ballot for United States Senator at the Nebraska primary election August 12. Two George W. Norrises had filed for the Senatorial nomination—Senator Norris of McCook, and George W. Norris, a grocery store manager at Broken Bow. Chief Justice Charles A. Goss of the State Supreme Court last night ruled the name of the grocer should not appear on the ballot as his filing reached the Secretary of State's office two days after the time limit expired. The decision closes all avenues for further appeal, but does not keep the Broken Bow man from entering the campaign as an independent candidate in the general election in November. His supporters here declined to discuss that possibility. Justice Goss ruling leaves three candidates in the race for the nomination, Senator Norris, State Treasurer W. M. Stebbins and Aaron Read of Madison. Senator Norris accepted the filing as final and abandoned plans for running as an independent. While he had made no declaration that he would campaign as an independent, his friends were prepared to announce his withdrawal from the Republican race if the name of the second Norris was permitted on the same ticket.

HUNT FOR GROCER

Broken Bow, Neb., July 19—(AP)—The search for George W. Norris, Broken Bow grocery store manager who filed as a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States Senator in opposition to Senator George W. Norris of McCook was extended to three states today as Senator Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota, chairman of the Senate's committee investigating campaign expenditures prepared to conduct a hearing here into the grocer's candidacy.

U. S. Tennis Stars Defeated Italians

Paris, July 19—(UP)—The United States defeated Italy in the Davis Cup inter-zone final today and won the right to meet France in the challenge round of the famous tennis trophy competition. The American victory was assured when Wilmer Allison of Austin, Tex. and John Van Ryn of East Orange, N. J., defeated Baron Humbert de Morpurgo and George de Stefani of Italy by scores of 5-7, 6-2, 6-4, 1-6, 6-3, in the doubles match of the inter-zone final. Previously the Americans had won two singles matches. Allison defeated de Stefani, while George Lott of Chicago won over de Morpurgo.

Health Conference Is Hoover Desire

Washington, July 19—(AP)—President Hoover has requested Surgeon General Cummings of the Public Health Service to call a conference of the Boards of Health of Kentucky, Missouri, Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana and Illinois to discuss carrying on sanitary work in the flood areas. Heretofore the government has cooperated with the state on a fifty-fifty basis but the appropriation failed at the last Congress.

EVENING EVENTS

WHEN twilight darkens, and one by one
The sweet birds to their nests have gone;

When to green banks the glow-worms bring Pale lamps to brighten evening;

Then stirs in his thick sleep the owl
Through the dewy air to prowl.....

Now all is still: the field man is Lapped deep in slumbering silent-ness.

Not a leaf stirs, but clouds on high
Pass in dim flocks across the sky.
Puffed by a breeze too light to move
Aught but these wakeful sheep above.

Miss Helen Crotzer Weds on Wednesday

Helen Crotzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crotzer, formerly of Amboy and now of Rockford, was married Wednesday to Russell Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Atkinson of 2040 Clinton street, Rockford.

The services were read at high noon in the parlors of the Second congregational church in Rockford, Dr. John Gordon performing the ceremony. Only immediate members of the family were present.

A wedding luncheon was served immediately following the ceremony at the home of the parents of the groom.

The bride is well known to a large group of young people in Amboy who extend their best wishes for a happy and prosperous wedded life.
The bride's father was employed in the Illinois Central shops in Amboy, moved to Rockford a number of years ago. The groom's father is in the oil business in Rockford.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. H. A. Roe and daughter, Mrs. Edwin Berg, of Chicago, were hostesses at a charming summer tea, honoring Mrs. Franklin Roe of Dixon, a recent bride (nee Ruth Fearer, of Oregon) and Mrs. John Roe, of New York City.

The Roe home was gay with midsummer garden flowers and the dining room cool and inviting with pink roses and ferns.

Mrs. Oliver Rogers and Mrs. W. C.
Durke presided at the tea table for a portion of the afternoon. Mrs. W.
A. McNichols and Miss Leona Durke of New York City, poured during a period of the afternoon. It proved one of the most enjoyable events of the summer season.

Have You Heard?

Restraining your pearls has had the pain taken out of the task by a new little invention which gives you the cord you string the beads on and the needle you thread it into all made into one.

The cord is staunch and yet slender enough to go through fine beads.
At one end the cord is fastened to a four-inch piece of very fine wire which tapers to a neat point.

You can get this device at the notion counters of department stores quite inexpensively. It comes not only in the preferred white but in colors.

WOMEN'S CLUB SPONSORS OCCUPATIONAL WORKSHOP—

CHICAGO—A curative occupational workshop as a demonstration clinic for medical students and physicians will be established at the medical college of Northwestern university soon by the Chicago
Woman's club.

The workshop will be the first in the United States to be established

Lynn-Bailey Wedding in Dixon

Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Methodist church in this city, the pastor of the church, Rev. A.
Turley Stephenson officiated at the wedding of Miss Maude I. Lynn and George W. Bailey, both of Oil City, Pa. The bride and bridegroom have been visiting relatives in Rock Falls.
At the wedding they were attended by Mrs. Neva Drayton, of Rock Falls; and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Card, of Waterloo, Iowa, were also present.
Mr. and Mrs. Card have also been visiting at the Drayton home.

After a visit in Rock Falls, the couple will return to Oil City, where they expect to make their home, followed by the best wishes of their relatives and the friends they have made here.

Dinner and Bridge Party Country Club

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warner entertained most delightfully at the Dixon Country Club last evening with a dinner and bridge. Colorful garden flowers graced the tables, which were illuminated with tapers. An elegantly appointed dinner was served.

Mrs. Jason Miller was awarded the favor for high honors at bridge for the ladies and Mrs. L. R. Evans received the consolation favor. Dr.
L. R. Evans received the favor for high honors for the gentlemen and John Davies received the consolation favor.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS—center filling of summer cakes, why not use fresh fruit? Children love banana cake and they will like just as much red raspberry, strawberry, peach, apricot, orange or any other fruit for a center filler. You can use whipped cream or custard for the top or serve it sprinkled with powdered sugar.

RADISH PEPPERS—An appetizing summer salad can be made from radishes and green peppers, cut in very thin slices, served on lettuce with French dressing into which some onion has been grated.

CHILDREN'S SANDWICHES—
When making sandwiches for a children's party, try making faces on top of them. You can use sliced olives, pimiento, cherries, cream cheese or many other edible things to outline nose, eyes and big, smiling mouth.

PEANUT BUTTER—When spreading peanut butter on sandwiches, mix it first with a little olive oil and you will find it twice as easy to

A Dog Trot—at a Wedding March

It must have been a doggy wedding—for "among those present" was this huge mastiff when John James Ellis, nephew of a former Lord Mayor of London, and Miss Marjorie Issac, prominent society woman, were married at Strand, England. The giant dog, owned by the bride, is shown as he broke loose from an attendant and reared on his hind legs to greet the newly-weds when they emerged from St. Clements Danes Church after the ceremony.

spread, and what is more, it won't stick to the roof of the mouth.

VACATION EMPLOYMENT—If you can work out some employment for your children that will occupy their leisure and give them a little money too, you are the ideal parent.
Girls usually like sewing; let them do mending for a consideration.
Boys like carpentering. Don't you need repairs or new contraptions?
Decide on the wages before they start the work.

SUMMER CLEARING—Before the torrid days come, put away every single knickknack, unnecessary picture, vase, lamp, pillow, table cover, rug, piano decoration and other extras. A room sparsely furnished with no furbelows is much cooler looking and more restful.

CANNED FISH FLAKES—New
and inexpensive are the canned fish flakes. They are mixed kinds of fish delicious in salads or creamed and exceptionally good to keep on the emergency shelf.

GAY COVERS—Inexpensive iron or wicker chairs for the garden can be made very holiday-looking by the addition of little six-inch deep covers of cretonne that you can make or buy to slip over their backs.

GARDEN PAD—A piece of linoleum, with its outer edge bound in colored adhesive tape, makes an ideal kneeling pad for the garden, with no cost whatever.

GUEST ROOMS—Whether you have one guest or many this summer, little things make all the difference in their attitude. Remember bedside lamps for those who can't sleep without reading, a box of note paper and pen, a few good books and magazines, a little fresh fruit in a pretty bowl. None of these cost much.

REMEMBER THE SICK—If you are vacationing away this summer, remember to send cards to the sick friends rather than the well. An interesting new scene may mean a lot in their day. Being remembered may mean more.

Wilson Crawford Cele- brated 80th Birthday

On July 18th Wilson Crawford of

Flower Show to be held in Mendota on Tuesday, August 12th, at the Elks Auditorium. This promises to be an unusual event as there are so many pretty flower gardens in the homes in Mendota and also in the locality.
This Flower Show will be under the supervision of the Mendota Woman's club and also the Kiwanis Club.

Harmony 4-H Club In Happy Meeting

Wednesday the Harmony 4-H club met at the home of Helen Miller in Harmon. The meeting was opened with the roll call, after which a new treasurer and club reporter were elected. A health talk was given on Mabel Kofod. Miss Leona Kofod demonstrated how to cut out a dress.
A delicious luncheon was served and all departed feeling they had spent a profitable and enjoyable afternoon.

Chorus To E. A. Roe

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cromm, of 619 N. Jefferson avenue, were happily surprised by a company of friends last evening who had a char-ivari for them and a miscellaneous show for the bride, who was formerly Miss Helen Huether, of Rochelle, and who taught school here for a number of years, making many friends. After the charivari the guests were invited to the house and two tables of bridge were formed, all spending a merry evening. Mrs.

Gavin Dick was fortunate in making high score and won the first favor and Miss Vera Thome won the consolation favor. Delicious refreshments were served. A delightful feature of the evening was the presentation to Mrs. Cromm of a number of nice gifts, a miscellaneous shower. She was very much surprised and graciously thanked the friends present for their interest and kindness.

Queen Helen and King Carol Take Their First Journey

Bucharest, Rumania, July 19 (AP)
—Queen Helen accompanied King
Carol today to the requiem memorial services for the late King Ferdinand, their first journey together, which the public regarded as an indication for their imminent reconciliation.

The Rumanian royal pair, divorced
when as Prince Carol, the husband, foresook his native country, were together on the train to Cureta de Arges. Others on the same train were Queen Marie, Prince Nicholas and Princess Ilena.

Indications of a gradual reconciliation had been given by both Helen and the King on several occasions since he gave up the golden-haired Madam Magda Lupescu and executed the coup by which he gained the Rumanian throne.

Demonstration Of Cooking Next Week

A cold cooking demonstration, showing the many varieties the electric refrigerator can add to your menu, will be given next Monday to Thursday at the Utility office. A number of frozen dainties will be shown by Miss Snively, who has made a special study of electric refrigeration, and its many advantages.

Miss Snively says it is surprising the number of inexpensive frozen dainties which can be made and cordially invites every "home maker."
To attend her demonstration, which will be given between 2:30 and 4:30 P. M. each day from July 21st to 24th.

Dixon Chautauqua To Close Tonight: Fine Entertainment

The play "The Enemy," was well presented last evening at the Assembly Auditorium in the Community Chautauqua program. It was well attended and the Kackley players are to be congratulated on the very fine presentation they gave.
The players were all talented and seasoned artists and deserve much praise for their performance. Of Channing Polack's gripping problem story which had a run of over a year on Broadway. All who witnessed it last evening are sincere in their praise of it.

Closing Program

The closing program this evening will be as follows:
8:00 P. M.—"The Value of Birds"
—Nature Talk, R. S. Wallace.
8:40 P. M.—Ten Minute Open Forum for Questions on Birds.
9:30 P. M.—Closing Musical Entertainment, Fay Epperson Whistling Ensemble.

The Fay Epperson Whistling Ensemble features not just one solo whistler, but three such soloists, each of whom has been applauded on the best theater stages of the country. The programs consists of whistling solos, duets and trios, in the latter each whistler taking a different part as do singers in an ensemble.

Special numbers, featuring the call of almost every known ornithological specimen and bringing into play the most accomplished and artistic whistling have been arranged for this presentation. The programs are staged with special scenery, woodlawn settings, and the audience may readily imagine it is witnessing the assemblage of the feathered songsters in their native habitat. The members of the ensemble are talented vocalists, too.

MISS OLSON VISITED HERE FRIDAY AND SATURDAY—

"Cut Expenses" Is President's Order

Washington, July 19—(AP)—At the direction of President Hoover, heads of the government departments are conducting a rigid inquiry into expenditures to see if savings can be made during the present fiscal year.
The object of their search is to reduce disbursements below the budget estimates as a means of offsetting a possible drop in government revenue due to the business depression.

This was announced by President Hoover in a statement issued late yesterday in response to the questions of newspaper correspondents.
"The cabinet members and heads of independent agencies have undertaken a searching inquiry into every branch of the government," he said,
"as to methods by which economies may be brought about for the fiscal year without interfering with the program of aid to unemployment."

"I am confident that we will find measures for very considerable reductions of outlay below the amounts appropriated. What amount may be completed or determined until we have completed our investigation."

Nurses will find Record Sheets at the B. F. Shaw Printing Co.

Mrs. Rippin, National Scout Executive, Resigns

Plans to Write; Was Head of Girl Scouts Eleven Years

Mrs. Jane Deeter Rippin, for more than eleven years National Director of the Girl Scouts, resigned active direction of that organization as of July 1st to devote herself to writing. Mrs.
Rippin, whom the late President Roosevelt described as "the most able woman executive in the United States" undertook executive leadership of the Girl Scouts in 1919 when the membership was slightly more than 20,000. Today, with almost a quarter million members, the organization reaches to almost every city, town and hamlet in the nation.

In tendering her resignation to the National Executive Committee of the organization, Mrs. Rip-pin said in part:

Membership Increasing

"I am happy that I am leaving the organization with a strong, steadily increasing membership and in a sound financial position.
Few social-work organizations over a period of ten years have been able to accumulate assets of $406,000 in reserve funds, with $1,500,000 in real estate and in addition to this have the assurance in pledges of $3,000,000, for a Five Year Development Plan.
I want to take this opportunity to thank all my diligent co-workers and directors for their zealous efforts in this behalf.

"Although I am tendering my resignation as National Director after a period of eleven years I shall always be a Girl Scout and glad to give of myself so far as possible in this splendid cause."
The action of the National Executive Committee on Mrs.
Rippin's resignation is expressed in the following vote:

Regrets Her Resignation

"Since Mrs. Rippin has not felt able to withdraw her resignation as National Director, it was voted to accept Mrs. Rippin's resignation, with profound regret and with the very utmost appreciation of her years of devoted service to the Girl Scouts, the value of which is not to be expressed in words. And furthermore, it was voted, that in appreciation of Mrs. Rippin's eleven years of untiring devotion, during which with no thought of long hours and days, with few vacations, with broad vision and high courage, with wise and sound financial foresight, Mrs. Rippin has led in the building of the firm foundation on which this organization now stands, that a six month's vacation with salary be given to her."

Mrs. Rippin began teaching school in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania where she was born. In 1904 she became assistant to the principal of the Mechanicsburg High School, but left there in 1908 to act as assistant superintendent of the Children's Village at Meadowbrook, Penn. From Meadowbrook she went to be supervisor of case work in the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children in Philadelphia, where she remained until 1914. In that year she became chief probation officer of that city.

Entire probation work of the

Mrs. Jane Deeter Rippin

City of Philadelphia was put in her hands and she directed a staff which grew from three workers to 365. During the World War she came to the attention of Raymond B. Fosdick, Chairman of the War and Navy Departments' Commission of Training Camp Activities. In the three years that she had charge of this work
Mrs. Rippin gave care to 38,000 women and girls.

After the War, interested in helping the women and girls of the country and convinced that character building was the greatest need, Mrs. Rippin undertook Girl Scout work, first as a volunteer. In May 1919 she became National Director of the Girl Scouts, when that organization occupied two rooms and had but a handful of employees.

"THE NAVY IS US."
"The navy is us," said Ramsay MacDonald.
"So definitely us that we should be reduced to starvation by its defeat or by its inadequacy to defend our sea routes and approaches," the London Post adds.
We are not so dependable upon our navy for existence as are the British isles, but beyond bare existence we need protection of our sea routes. If we are to pursue any kind of a course in commerce, we need naval protection, either in war or in peace. Even as neutrals we have suffered abuse of our trade, interference with our commerce.
"We need not anticipate war, but we have to fear a situation in which the United States, or a combination of European powers, might advise us in a friendly way to give up certain principles or possessions which are vital, and, owing to our naval inadequacy, we should not feel in a position to maintain our point of view," says the London Post. "We might thus be defeated without a war, whereas if our navy had been maintained at an adequate force, the demand would never have been made, or could have been, without danger of war, resisted."
This opposition to limitation of the British navy by the London treaty may be turned to account by supporters of the treaty in the United States. On the other hand, we have some policies and possessions of our own to be considered. The London treaty is said to give us sufficient defensive strength in our own waters to ward off attack by the British navy in the Atlantic or by the Japanese navy in the Pacific. What about necessity of going into South American waters to enforce the Monroe doctrine?
Of course many proponents of the limitation of the navy and otherwise rendering the United States impotent under attack favor also abandonment of the Monroe doctrine. Inability to enforce it is just as suitable to their purpose as abandoning it.
We have seen no mention of the Monroe doctrine in connection with discussions of the relative strength of the navies under the London treaty. Perhaps that is because principal treaty opponents are only luke warm toward the doctrine and have much in common with its opponents.
It is a matter of considerable importance, as the London Post says, if other powers "advise us in a friendly way to give up certain principles or possessions which are vital, and, owing to our naval inadequacy, we should not feel in a position to maintain our point of view." Particularly is it important to us if those particular principles happen to pertain to the Monroe doctrine and its enforcement.

IDOLS AND KISSES.
This episode of young Miss Amy Johnson and the man she slapped provokes certain meditations about the difference between male idols and female idols.
Miss Johnson, as you know, is the toast of the British empire nowadays because she flew, alone, in a second-hand plane, from London to Australia. She is being feted and dined on a lavish scale. And the other day, in Australia, an ardent young man stepped up to her automobile and kissed her.
Amy wasted no time. She hauled off and busted him one, leaving him with a bloody nose and a sincere conviction that a famous young aviatrix is not to be kissed with impunity. Which, of course, is quite all right—
But male flyers, or heroes of any kind, are different. Lindbergh was pursued by the kisses of many fair admirers and while he ducked most of them, he could never use his fists to convince any of the girls that he preferred to stay unknissed. That privilege is reserved for the feminine element. Any famous young man, apparently, must grin and bear it. It is only the girl who can swing a lusty right to stave off an unwanted kiss.

TEN MURDERS A YEAR.
England may be the mother country, but there are times when it appears that mother and daughter have very little in common.
London, for instance, has just reported a drop in its murder rate. During 1929, in all the London police district, there were only ten murders committed. Yet the British aren't satisfied—for four of the murderers have thus far escaped justice. This is rather shocking, and Britain is writing to the Times about it, in staid indignation.
Ten murders in a whole year! New York, Chicago or Detroit would look on a record like that as being a near approach to the millennium. And any time the police of any American city can catch 60 per cent of their murderers they will be more than satisfied. The present ratio is a mere fraction of that.

One fact which goes against the grain is that bread prices stay up while wheat prices go down.
What some after-dinner speakers need is not a watch—but a calendar.

The Plowman soon, to Clowny said, "You want to help me? Come ahead! I'll let you drive my oxen all the way across the field. Just steer them straight and you'll have fun. You watch! ... and know how it's done." Then Clowny said, "Why sure I will." To him it quite appealed.

He grabbed the reins and shouted, "Whoa." Of course the oxen didn't go. The other Tynmites laughed aloud, "cause he had shouted wrong. 'At driving you're an awful flop," cried Scouty. "Whoa just makes them stop. Shout 'glidyap!'" So Clowny did and soon he moved along.

He plowed up one whole length of ground and then the oxen turned around and came right back to where the lunch was waiting in surprise. "Say, you did fine," the plowman cried. An' ditto! Clowny merely sighed and said, "Oh, any one can do things if he really tries."

The others did some plowing, too, and then, the next thing that they knew the plowman's field was all plowed up, and his day's work was done. The Tynmites then went on their way. The work they'd done had just been played and just before they left him they all thanked him for their fun.

Back into town they slowly walked and all the way the whole bunch talked about the pretty scenery. Then the Travel Man cried, "Say! I'm hungry and it's time to eat. I know where we can find a treat. An old man sells fine sandwiches and he's right down this way."

They found the old man in the street. Upon a grate he cooked fine meat and then made up his sandwiches, which he was glad to sell. The Travel Man and the Tynmites each bought one. After several bites, Wee Carpy shouted loudly, "Yum, yum, yum, but these are swell."

TODAY IS THE ANNIVERSARY

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
On July 19, 1578, St. Vincent de Paul, adviser of the queen and oracle of the Catholic church in France, was born.

St. Vincent was captured by corsairs shortly after his ordination and carried into Barbary. He converted his renegade master and escaped with him to France.

When he became chaplain general of the galleys of France his tender charity brought hope into the prisons where despair had reigned. His charity took him among the poor, the young and old Christians enslaved by infidels.

Stories are told of how he went through the Paris streets at night seeking the children left there to die, and of how he once took the place of an imprisoned man at the galley oar in order that the prisoner might go to his mourning mother.

His name is associated with the deeds of many Catholic charities, including the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, a laymen's organization formed visiting poor and suffering and dis- in 1835 in Paris with the object of dispensing relief and sponsoring other charitable works.

St. Vincent de Paul died in 1660.

National Grange To Support Farm Board
Washington, July 18—(UP)—The National Grange will give President Hoover's Federal Farm Board every opportunity to work out a solution of the existing farm problem. Lewis J. Taber, Master, informed the President at the White House today.

Taber said the Grange is declining to join in the farm bloc effort to revive the equalization fee or de-benture plan of relief.

"As soon as business and financial America realize that commodity prices now are at rock bottom there will be an upturn," Taber said. "We will stand behind the board and give it every possible chance."

snow, washing clothes, cleaning lamp chimneys, caring for the back yard garden, and putting about the house, seems to be slowly disappearing with the times, and as these activities are discontinued too often nothing takes their place. Even stair exercises are disappearing with the marked increase in flats, apartments, bungalows and elevators. Thus we are experiencing in the case of organic diseases, particularly the so-called middle age ailments such as heart diseases, including diseases of the blood circulation system, kidney diseases, diabetes, cancer and others, an increase that is truly alarming to those who are dealing with statistics in human life—alarming because we have no definite means for correction that the public seems to enjoy.

Intelligent diet is also important although it is not a cure-all either. But only half of the population has been watching weight and food intake recently and unfortunately for them, they watched it not always from the standpoint of fashion.

To live in a good physical condition depends on each individual person. He must eat, sleep and exercise sufficiently but not to excess. He must work and play but not overdo. He must wear proper clothing for the varying climate. Possibly the best advice can be summed up by the statement that he should be moderate in these things without overlooking any of them.

And lastly, your physician can do much if you will let him, (1) by giving him an opportunity now and then, at least once a year, to give you a physical examination seeking any physical defects that may be starting and, (2) then following his advice for the teeth.

Moderation and medical supervision are therefore my prescription for possible long life and probable healthy life.

George L. Browning, president of the Seaboard National Bank of Los Angeles, says:
"A father can do no more damaging thing to his son than to leave him a fortune to handle without having taught him how to handle that fortune. It is like handing a loaded weapon to a child who knows nothing about handling such weapons."
"A daughter at five receives her first music lesson. Continuously she is taught and continuously she practices her music until she reaches her maturity. Because of the foresight, patience, interest and energy of her parents she is an accomplished musician."
"The son at five is given his first lesson in business. Continuously he is taught and continuously he practices business dealings. At maturity he can play the game of business as easily as the daughter can play the piano."
"How foolish are the parents who expect the son to be a successful business man after having neglected to teach him economic principles and business practices in the early formative period of his life!"
"Into the child's mind and soul there must be built a solid foundation on which rests the business principles. The child must have formed a habit of close analysis, definite objective, creative thinking, unyielding determination and honesty of purpose. The schools alone cannot give this. The home—the parents must bring this about by directing the child's activities and thereby the child's habit of thought."

Trusty Bridegroom Escapes From Jail
Hopkinsville, Ky., July 18—(AP)—Edgar Doss, 21, who as a trusty won the heart of Miss Ruth Stephens, Deputy County Clerk, and married her while serving a term for house breaking, escaped from the county jail today. His term would have expired August 2.

Doss, a student in the University of Illinois, tired of college life, he said, and last winter joined a traveling show. He was stranded here, became drunk, robbed a house and was sentenced to six months.

While on leave as a trusty recently, he eloped with Miss Stephens. He returned to jail and she went to Seattle, Washington where he planned to join her later.

Only Five Percent Of Chicagoans Idle
Chicago, July 18—(AP)—Fewer than five percent of each hundred Chicagoans were out of a job when visited by the census enumerators this spring.

The unemployment figures, including both men and women 16 or over who ordinarily pursued a gainful occupation, were 145,852. This was a percentage of 4.3 of the city's 3,375,235 population.

Joseph E. Vesley, Census Supervisor, said an improvement in employment conditions has been noted since the census figures were compiled.

Three Gunmen Died In Sing Sing Chair
Ossining, N. Y., July 18—(UP)—Three Buffalo gunmen paid the state's penalty for murder last night and died within 20 minutes of each other in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison.

The men were Alexander Bogdenoff, Max Rybarczyk and Stephen Grezchowiak. They were convicted of killing Ferdinand Feechter, restaurant proprietor, during a holdup.

Bogdenoff's attempt to assume all the blame failed to result in reprieves for the others, but Rybarczyk and Grezchowiak maintained their innocence to the last.

PART-TIMERS IN BIG LEAGUE ARE UP AGAINST RULE

Have Hard Pull To Compete With Regulars In The Averages

New York, July 19.—(AP)—Part time players of the National League are having a long, hard pull to compete with regular batters. Averages released today, which include Wednesday's games, show a half dozen players with batting marks up among the leaders but they have not played often enough to deserve places on the list of regulars.

Most notable of these is George Fisher of St. Louis, who has an average of .420, but must yield first place to Frank O'Doul of Philadelphia, who has a .403 mark. Fisher has been to bat only 143 times against 293 for O'Doul. O'Doul also is leader in hitting two baggers. By increasing his total to 27 doubles he has displaced Frank Frisch, of St. Louis, who is tied with Adam Comorosky of Pittsburgh at 26.

Behind O'Doul in batting averages comes his teammate, Chuck Klein, who has .397, and also leads in home runs with 26, in runs batted in with 95, and is tied with Bill Terry of New York in total hits at 127. Klein is second to Kiki Cuyler, of Chicago, who has tallied 63 runs, two more than Klein, is tied with Comorosky with 20, and is second to Klein in batting in runs, having driven home 83.

Behind Klein on the list of regulars in batting come Stephenson, Chicago, at the .393 mark; Herman, .386; P. Waner, Pittsburgh, .378; Hellmann, Cincinnati, .368; Lindstrom, New York, .353; Cuyler, Chicago, .352; and Grantham Pittsburgh, .340.

Leadership in other departments remains unchanged. The Phillies top the club batting list at .325. Cincinnati leads in fielding with .976, while Bob Osborn, of Chicago, remains the leading pitcher with a mark of .857 gained from six victories and one defeat.

IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

Chicago, July 19.—(AP)—Without doing better than maintain his average of .382 Lou Gehrig, the New York Yankees' first baseman, moved up to a spot just two points behind Al Simmons of the Athletics, in the American League batting race, unofficial averages which include Wednesday's games revealed today.

Al was in front with .384. Sam Rice was third with .377. Other leaders were: Dickory, New York, .364; Combs, New York, .354; Manush, St. Louis-Washington, .352; Fox, Philadelphia, .343.

Gehrig, however, was out in front in two other departments. He had knocked in 99 runs and his total base collection was 232. Johnny Hodapp, of Cleveland, topped the list in hits with 127 and Babe Ruth set the pace in homers, with 32 and had scored 98 times to lead by a handsome margin.

Marty McManus, of Detroit, displaced Sam Rice as leader of the base stealers, with 14, adding two during the week while the Washington veteran failed to better his total of 13. McManus also continued to lead in two base hits with 29. Earl Combs of New York, drove out another triple and held the lead at 13.

The Yankees continued to hit at a .313 clip to retain the team batting leadership. The Athletics maintained their .973 fielding average, but Washington bettered its mark by one point and went into a tie for first position with Connie Mack's champions. Detroit and Cleveland were tied for double play honors with 95 each.

Robert Moses Grove, premier southpaw of the Athletics, was credited with one victory during the week and moved back into the lead. He had 12 victories and three defeats, along with having struck out 111 batters. Ted Lyons, of Chicago and Wes Ferrell, of the Indians, each had 13 victories, but each had drop-nine decisions.

Baseball Gossip

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.

Associated Press Sports Writer
Almost unnoticed amid the tumult and shouting over the Brooklyn-Chicago battle for first place in the National League, there is a strange bit of baseball warfare going on in the second division of the circuit with Pittsburgh, Boston and Cincinnati involved.

Pittsburgh's Pirates are on top of the second division today, holding fifth place by a half game margin by virtue of yesterday's 12 to 4 triumph over the Boston Braves. Cincinnati, victorious over the humble Phillies 13 to 6 still is in seventh place but only a half game behind the Braves.

Chicago's Cubs used the home run route as they clipped Brooklyn's lead to a single game by winning the fourth clash of their "crucial" series, 6 to 2. Hack Wilson, Clyde Beck, and Woody English clouted homers to account for four of Chicago's runs while Del Bissonette's four base blow was the only real wallop of the five hits the Robins made off the delivery of Sheriff Fred Black.

Brooklyn still has the advantage going into the series final today, even if the Cubs win the last game, the Robins will hold first place by a four point margin.

New York's Giants went a long way toward settling their dispute with

CHAMPIONS STRUT THEIR STUFF AT INERLACHEN AND ARLINGTON

Victory in the National Open golf classic at Interlachen Country club, Minneapolis, added another jewel to the crown of Bobby Jones, golfing champion of practically everything and everywhere. It was the Atlanta's fourth U. S. Open victory, his 12th major golf championship and his third major title in the present season. Already Bobby has accomplished more in golf than any other individual but he anticipates winning the U. S. Amateur crown in September. Jones scored a birdie on the 18th green of the final round by sinking a 40-foot putt. The line indicates the course of the ball toward the cup. Joe Turnesa, Bobby's opponent in the final round, is shown offering congratulations to the Atlanta in the lower photo. Immediately following his victorious march over fairway and green, Jones was presented the championship trophy by Findley S. Douglas, right above, president of the United States Golf Association.

St. Louis over third place by rallying for five runs in the ninth inning to win the second in a row, 8 to 7. The Giants could not make much progress against Bill Hallahan in the first eight frames, but they did a good job of it in the final, getting six singles.

The lowly St. Louis Browns provided the big thrill of the American League's day as they blew a seven game losing streak sky high at the expense of the New York Yankees. The Browns started hitting and scoring in the first inning and, refusing to be intimidated by the great Babe Ruth, who made his 33rd home run, or Lou Gehrig, who clouted his 25th, they didn't stop until the eighth, rolling up a 14 to 6 score. Incidentally they moved out of eighth place by a three point margin over the Boston Red Sox, who lost a 7-6 decision to Detroit.

The Philadelphia Athletics won their eighth straight game by scoring eleven runs in two innings to defeat Chicago 15 to 1. Four home runs two by Jimmy Foxx, were tossed in among Philadelphia's 15 hits and George Earnshaw allowed the Sox only seven blows.

Washington got back in the winning column to even the series with Cleveland and remain 3 1/2 games behind the Athletics with an 8 to 6 victory.

RUTH SCORES CENTURY

New York, July 19.—(AP)—Babe Ruth is the first major league player to score 100 runs this season. The Yankee slugger tallied twice against the St. Louis Browns yesterday to bring his season's total to an even century.

SHAMROCK V IS FORCED TO DROP ANCHOR AT SEA

Stormy Weather Delays Trip Of Challenger Yacht To States

BULLETIN

Ryde, England, July 19.—(UP)—Shamrock V, scheduled to sail for the United States today, dropped anchor off the Ryde pier this afternoon awaiting improvement in the weather.

Soon after leaving Gosport Shamrock came to anchor. The weather had become increasingly heavy. Prospects for an early resumption of the trip across the Atlantic were slim indeed. The Channel seas were running high.

It was believed that the Lipton yacht might remain at anchor over night.

Gosport, England, July 19.—(UP)—Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht, Shamrock V., sailed at 11:27 A. M. today for the United States to compete for the America Cup.

The Erin, Sir Thomas' steam yacht, accompanied the America Cup challenger out of Gosport, and will convey her to the United States.

A stormy half-gale blew up as the Shamrock V. was about to sail, and it was necessary to tow the craft as far as Spithead, where the compasses were adjusted.

Thousands of Brits lined the waterfront between Gosport and Portsmouth as the trim yacht, costing $125,000, sailed out to sea in quest of the cup that England lost to the United States in 1851 in the races at Cowes.

Col. Duncan Neill, Lipton's adviser, was aboard the Erin with two other members of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, Captain Ross and Mr. Barbour. Dr. W. C. Whiteside of British Columbia, also was aboard.

Capt. Ned Heard, a sturdy, square-jawed skipper from the Essex country, was in command of the Shamrock, which carried a crew of 22.

Oil For Rough Seas

The Erin carried a large quantity of oil to pour on the water about the Shamrock if the seas become bothersome. It was instructed to keep within hailing distance of the smaller vessel so that any necessary aid could be given the yacht or its crew. The Erin was equipped with wireless, but the Shamrock had none.

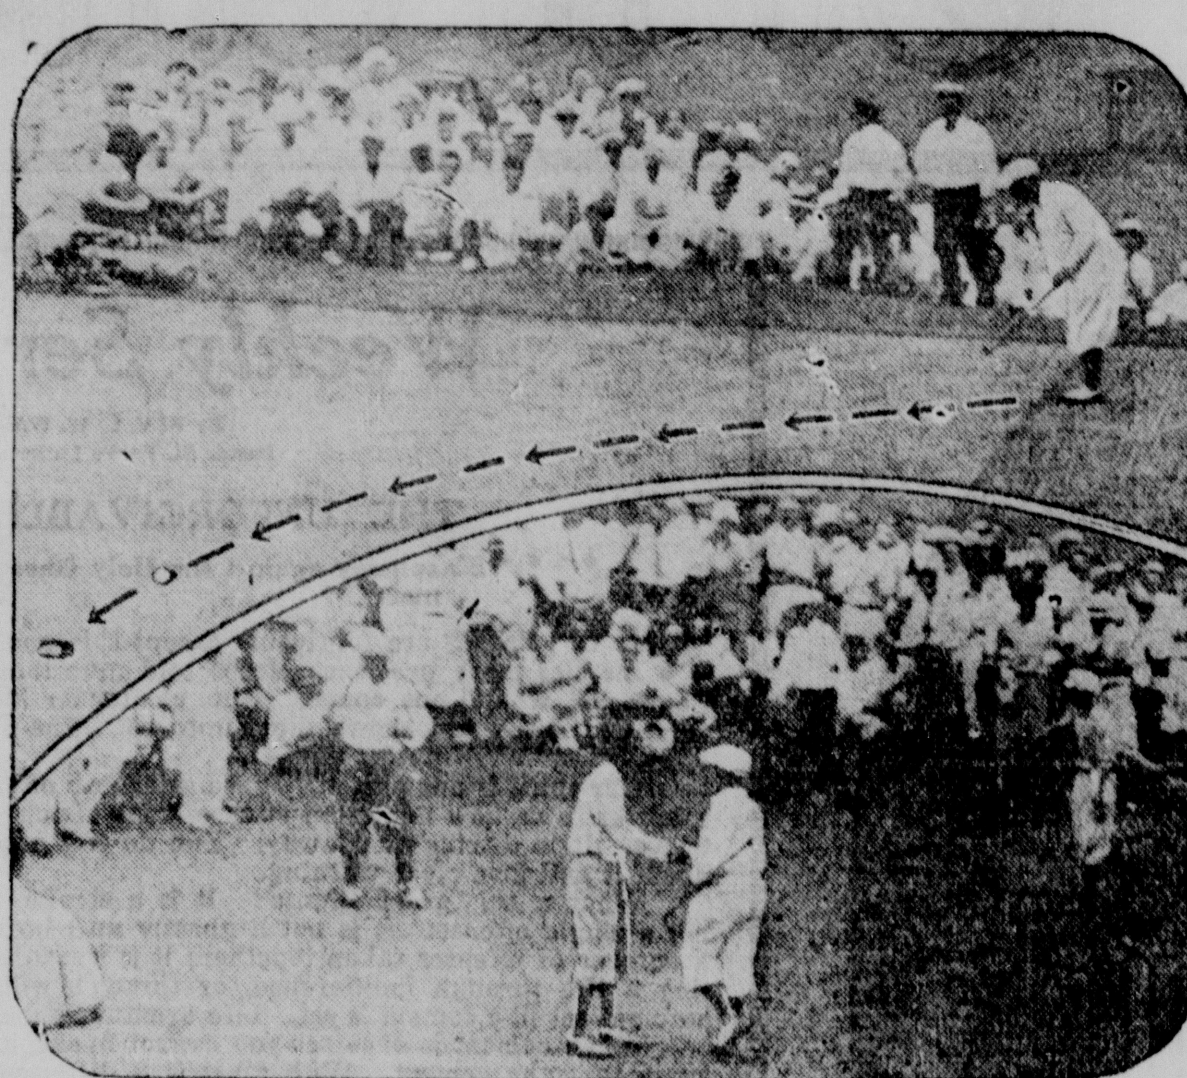

Sir Thomas, who is 80 years old, was prevented by illness from personally witnessing the departure of the boat which he hopes will attain his chief ambition in the realm of sports — the recapture of the America Cup.

The two boats will sail directly to Fayal, Azores Islands, where the Erin will refuel. From there they will proceed to Newport, R. I.

The date of arrival in the United States was not set definitely, but the Shamrock was provisioned for a month's voyage.

The Shamrock V., which is about the size of Columbus' caravels, was equipped with a trysail, a squaresail, a jib and staysail and jigger mast for the deep sea voyage. The $10,000 mainsail, made of the finest canvas in the world for the challenge race, was stored aboard the Erin.

The yacht has a full area of 7,500 square feet, it was built of mahogany with steel ribs and a drop keel. A hollow mainmast consisting of 52 pieces of highly polished wood reduces wind resistance to a minimum.

Primo Carnera has not enrolled at Notre Dame but his barnstorming tour recently took him to South Bend, Ind., the home of these Fighting Irish — Savoldi, Carideo, Schwartz and some others. Carnera expressed a desire to come back next fall and play tackle for Rockne. SPORT BRIEFS

NEW YORK—Miss Helen Jacobs, No. 2 ranking player in women's national tennis ratings, announced plans today to compete in the leading eastern tennis tournaments before returning to her home in California.

Miss Jacobs arrived here yesterday from Europe on the S. S. Mauretania but will not go to California until after the national championships at Forest Hills, Aug. 18-23. Her plans call for competition at Seabright, Maldstone and in several minor events.

GROTON, Conn.—Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd, veteran Philadelphia golfer, was favored to defeat Miss Edith Quier of Reading, Pa., in the finals of the Griswold trophy tournament at Shennecossett Country Club today.

Miss Quier is the defending titleholder, while Mrs. Hurd holds two legs on the trophy and is a former United States, English, French, and two Canadian national women's titleholder.

CLEVELAND, O.—The Johnny Risko-Tom Heeney fight, scheduled for Tuesday night was indefinitely postponed today. Manager Danny Dunn decided that Risko's shoulder, injured last week in a training session, was not sufficiently recovered.

CHARLESTON, W. Va.—Gene Tunney believes the New York "no-foul" rule would be a success if restrictions were adopted to prevent a return to the old "everything goes" type of fighting.

Tunney stopped off here between trains yesterday while enroute to White Sulphur Springs and discusssed current pugilistic affairs with reporters.

The former heavyweight champion also said he regarded W. L. "Young" Stribling as the outstanding contender to win the heavyweight championship. He said it was a "shame the Sharkey-Schmeling fight ended in a foul."

"The tendency to his low is Sharkey's main fault," he said. "He loses his head at the crucial moment."

CHICAGO—Don Moe, defending champion, and the several other competitors who are rated a chance of defeating him in the western amateur golf tournament over the Beverly Country Club course starting Monday went out for semi-final practice rounds.

A majority of the amateurs entered in the meet agreed that the course is one of the trickiest over which the western open ever has been played. After practice rounds yesterday, many of the entries displayed the same reticence as Moe who replied "too many" when asked about his score.

The best card of the day was turned in by Nelson Ruddy, Husky Cincinnati youngster, who was out in 37 and back in the same score for a total of 74. Phil Perkins, the British tournament player, had a 78 for his first trip over the course.

Most of the players here for the tournament agreed that a score of 144 would win medalist honors in the qualifying competition.

Hartford, Conn.—(UP)—Cannibalism among young lobsters is being discouraged by the Connecticut hatchery at Noank which has devised a perforated tube in which young lobsters may be segregated. The lobster crop is cut every year by the cannibalistic habits of young crustaceans.

ALEXANDER IS GIVEN ONE MORE CHANCE TO SHOW

Must Keep In Condition To Keep Berth In The Texas League

Dallas, Tex., July 19.—(UP)—A bush league baseball crowd gathered under a shady stand here today and watched an epic of the game—the battle of Grover Cleveland Alexander, one of the greatest sport idols of all times, braving a scorching Texas sun, doggedly determined to make good at his last chance.

"Old Pete", who has thrown more baseballs to major league batters in his 23 year career than most sport fans will see in a life time, "shaggy fies" in the outfield of the Dallas Texas League ball park and prepared to take the mound again Sunday to show he "still has the stuff of which idols are made."

Pete has salvaged only a little farm up in Nebraska and a world of championship diamond ring given him in St. Louis, from his vast major league earnings.

"Alex" is on probation, and only his workouts of the past two days and his faithful promise to keep himself in physical condition have won for him a chance to prove his worth. Vice-President Bob Tarlton announced earlier in the week that he had asked waivers on the veteran moundsman after Alex twice had failed to report to the ball park when he was scheduled to pitch and had broken training rules.

"It's just the thought that I'm slipping," Pete said today. "It's mighty hard to keep plugging away when I know I have had my best days and that I never will be able to win another berth in the majors."

"These youngsters down here who were kids when I was, at my best will be moving up all the time and I will be going down."

A friend and teammate is at Alex's side in his crucial struggle.

Oscar Dugey, who coached and played second for the Phillies, when they won their last pennant, is his constant companion and loudest rooster.

"Pete has the stuff," Dugey said today. "There is not a minor league batter who can hit when he keeps himself fit. If Pete keeps in training, he still has plenty of years to play."

Woodward, Okla.—(UP)—Because a local boy was unable to open a knife belonging to R. H. Burns and W. B. Cook the two men served five days in jail. The men bet the boy he could not open their knife. The youth lost a dollar when he failed, so he signed a complaint against them. They were jailed on charges of obtaining money under false pretenses.

PAJAMAS BARRED IN MEMPHIS
Memphis, Tenn.—(UP)—Because it's done in other cities will be no excuse for wearing pajamas on Memphis streets according to Police Chief Will Lee who has announced all pajama-clad persons will be arrested and charged with some sort of misdemeanor.

In what probably was their stiffest race of the 1930 season, Gallant Fox and Jockey Earl Sande flew to victory in Chicago's Arlington Classic to set their record of consecutive stake race victories to six. Weekly Sermonette

By REV. L. W. WALTER,
Pastor St. Paul's Lutheran Church

THE UNFORGIVABLE OFFENSE

* Blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. —Matt. 12. 31

ALL OFFENSES are forgivable except this one. This exception makes all the other mercies more precious. Jesus told men that it was necessary for him to go or the Comforter would not come. The comforter has come; He is here and takes of the things of Jesus and shows them unto us. The Spirit Himself beareth witness with our spirit.

Our spirit is our person. If we grieve or offend the Holy Ghost so that he will not minister to us how deadly an offense it is! Such offending is final. There is no retrieve. It is driving God away. You do not marvel that Jesus was careful to tell men about it and give clear warning.

What is this great offense? It is a stroke against the individual himself. It is not a single offense. It is not a ghastly and horrible descent into an awful sin. It is a number of offenses taken together; it is growth and development in sin. It is setting a life through indifference, or through will against God. It is a life that finally becomes set like cement is set. Life eventually becomes that way.

When cement is once set you cannot make it over. The material cannot be used again to make cement. With glass it is different; if it is wrongly fashioned you may throw it back into the furnace and remold it. Not so with cement. In like manner a life set without God in its habitual way has barred out the Spirit's approach.

How should this effect me? I will no longer close my life to the teaching and preaching of God's Holy Word. The Word of Christ shall find in me a ready mind. I will be a regular worshipper with God's people. I will use every privilege to become informed and have my spirit enlivened. Every ministry of mercy in His Name shall find ready hands and willing feet in me. I will grow toward, and like God, and not away from Him. My life will be set Godward.

He who is open and ready in thought will find his will made free, unshackled from material and time. He will increase in power, in favor with God and man. He will have character; the character of an endless life.

Atlanta's Welcome To Bobby Jones

"I know I will never see the day that this will not be the greatest in my memory." That was what Bobby Jones, a home town boy who has made good at golf, was telling enthusiastic fellow citizens when this picture was taken during Atlanta, Ga.'s wild welcome to the returning links hero. Jones, victor in three major tournaments of the year, is shown at the right beside Mayor I. N. Ragsdale, who presented him with a golden key to the city at official ceremonies. At the left is Mrs. Jones, who shared in the tribute to her golfer-lawyer husband.

A Red Meets His Finn-ish

A radical editor was being accorded radical treatment when this unusual picture was taken at Waasa, Finland. It was a "take-off"—literally—which anti-Communists staged during a Red demonstration. Police stood by without interfering while the Communist writer's clothes were removed and he was exiled to a State of Undress.

ROCHELLE NEWS

Rochelle—Thursday was Rochelle day at Kishwaukee Country Club at DeKalb. The men and women made up foursomes and played golf in the afternoon and covers were laid for sixty for fried chicken dinner in the evening. D. J. Hoey was chairman and Fred E. Gardner presented the prizes. Awards of three golf balls each were made for low net and gross scores. Prize winners were Mrs. James Winslow and Mrs. D. J. Hooley, Frank Carney and Fred E. Gardner.

KNOT HOLE NEWS

VOL. 2. JULY 19, 1930. No. 28

In these moonshine days there is a singular exaltation in the saying, "I'll try anything once."

"Believe it or not"—it isn't going to be this hot next January. This is a mighty good time to put in your winter coal supply. We have that good Eastern coal and it is priced right for immediate delivery.

A Jew came home one night and found his wife rocking the baby and singing "Bye, lo, Baby, by-lo Baby." "Dat vas right," said Isaac, "you teach him to buy low and I'll teach him to sell high."

A swimming pool is being installed at Mr. C. R. Walgreen's estate, Hazelwood. How we'd like to have one in our back yard these days!

"Papa, what makes a man always give a woman a diamond engagement ring?"

"The woman, my son."

John Kuehnle is making some extensive alterations in his home on Peoria Ave. Two houses now are where there formerly was but one. Chris Johnson is doing the work.

Judge: What's your name?

Ole Ole Olson. Married? Yes, bane married. Who'd you marry? Oh, I marry a woman.

Well did you ever hear of anyone who didn't marry a woman?

Yes, my sister, she marry a man.

Just a final word—indications point to higher coal prices this winter than we have had for a number of years. It will pay you well to put your coal in NOW.

Once children honored their parents. Now the parents honor the checks drawn by their children.

And They Sit, and Sit, and Sit

Tree sitters, ahoy! Jack Richards, 14, is shown here "at the controls" of his tree perch in the backyard of his home at Kansas City, Mo. And Jack seems to have the rest of the tree sitters out on a limb, for he had been up 124 hours when this picture was taken. His "refuel" team had just passed up his lunch by means of a clothes line.

Two more tree sitters who hope to smash the world endurance record are pictured here. They are Jack Harris, left, and Pat Kirkpatrick, who rigged up this elaborate perch at Pat's home in Oak Park, Ill. They report receipt of a large batch of fan mail which is sent up to them when "refuel" contacts are made.

then leaves. The boy goes to work and only the mother and father are left around the table. The father wishes for $200.00 to pay off a mortgage. Soon there is a knock on the door and a group of men appear with the sad news that their son has been killed at the factory. They explain that the death was accidental, and that the factory is willing to pay $200.00 to the parents. The father and mother then realize that their friend was right, when he said that all the rabbit's foot brought was bad luck, so they throw it in the fire.

ERRORGRAMS

Today's Scrambled CREATECORAL
 Step on it

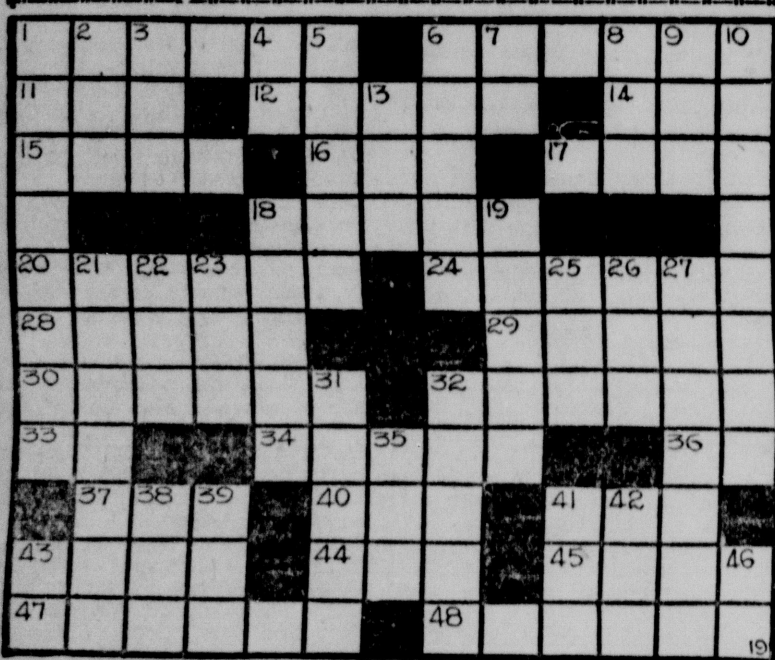

(Copyright, 1930, NEA Service, Inc.)

There are at least four mistakes in the above picture. They may pertain to grammar, history, etiquette, drawing or whatnot. See if you can find them. Then look at the scrambled word below—and unscramble it, by switching the letters around. Grade yourself 20 for each of the mistakes you find, and 20 for the word if you unscramble it. Monday we'll explain the mistake and tell you the word. Then you can see how near a hundred you hit.

FRIDAY'S CORRECTIONS

(1) Fujiyama is a Japanese mountain, instead of a Chinese. (2) The man at the left should say whom does the statue represent, not "who." (3) K'ung-Fu-Tse is a Chinese philosopher, not a Japanese. (4) Confucius is his Latin, instead of his English, name. (5) The scrambled word is ENTRANCE.

MASTER'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE. (Partition). State of Illinois, County of Lee, ss. In the Circuit Court of said County. Bessie M. Hintz vs. Bertha Compton, Horace Compton, Roland Compton, Emeline Compton, Warren Compton, William J. Dodson, and Rilla Gibbs.

In Chancery. Partition. Gen. No. 4986. Public notice is hereby given that in pursuance of a Decree of said Circuit Court made and entered in the above entitled cause on the 23rd day of June, A. D. 1930, I, the undersigned Master-in-Chancery of said Court, will on Wednesday, the 6th day of August, A. D. 1930, at the hour of ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the North door of the Court House in the City of Dixon, Lee County, Illinois, sell at public auction to the highest and best bidder, on the terms hereinafter specified, all and singular, the following described premises and real estate in said Decree mentioned, to-wit:

The Northerly two-thirds (2/3) of Lot Number Four (4), in Block Fifty-seven (57), in the Town (now City) of Dixon, in Lee County, Illinois, provided the said bid upon each piece or parcel shall be equal to at least two-thirds (2/3) of the valuation put upon the same, as shown by the report of the commissioners heretofore appointed by the Court to make the partition thereof, on the other pieces shall at the same time sell for enough to make the total amount of sales equal to two-thirds (2/3) of the said valuation.

Terms of Sale: Fifteen per cent (15%) of the purchase price on the day of sale, and the balance of the purchase price in cash upon the approval of the Master's report of sale; said premises to be sold subject to the lien of a mortgage recorded in the office of the Recorder of Lee County, Illinois, in book 76 of mortgages on page 450, and subject also to the dower rights of Bertha Compton in an undivided one-fourth (1/4) interest in said premises.

Dated at Dixon, Illinois, this 3rd day of July, A. D. 1930.

DANCING JUDITH

by CORALIE STANTON and HEATH HOSKEN
COPYRIGHT 1930 by CHELSEA HOUSE

BEGIN HERE TODAY

JUDITH GRANT, artist's model, loves ALAN STEYNE, painter, who is also loved by CHUMMY MORLEY. Judith's best friend Chummy had loved Steyne years ago and had lost her memory when he was away; so, though he loves Judith, Judith insists it is his duty to marry Chummy, who regains her memory when she sees him again. Judith studies dancing and makes a sensation in a musical show backed by RICHARD WYON, Chummy, on the eve of her marriage, learns that Judith and Steyne love each other and breaks her engagement; but Judith refuses to marry Steyne, insisting he belongs to Chummy. Then Judith learns that Wyon is really the agent for rich BILLIE GIDEON, a dancer, who has been pursuing her with his attentions for some time. He goes to Gideon's house and reproaches him for his deceit, telling him that the whole city now thinks she is his property.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

JUDITH struggled with swelling tears that she would rather die than shed.

Gideon allowed a moment to elapse. Then he said, without looking at her:

"All the same, you must admit I have had the honor and the good fortune to give a great dancer to the world."

"That you haven't!" Judith's voice sounded as if her frail body were about to burst with tolerance.

"You cannot pretend that you can't dance. That would be rather too much of a joke!"

"I don't pretend anything," she flashed; "but I'll tell you one thing—I'm never going to dance again. Not likely—after this!"

It was useless for Gideon to argue or plead. Judith was adamant. She would give up her career as a dancer rather than owe anything to him. He had cheated her; he had behaved like a cad. She would cancel her contract with Matthew Tannary and return to her model work.

She flung herself out of Gideon's apartment, and went at once to see Matthew Tannary.

Will Celebrate
82,180.00 Lutherans throughout the world, a Prot-stant world body almost as large as all other Protestant bodies combined—are celebrating the 400th Anniversary of the reading of the Augsburg Confession before a convention of the Holy Roman Empire at Augsburg, Germany—an event which marks the real birth of the Lutheran church of this place and the St. John's Lutheran church of Ashton, together with a dozen or more neighboring Lutheran congregations are about to celebrate the Augsburg Confession, July 27, at the Tabernacle at the Camp Grounds, at 2:30. Rev. A. P. Meyer, of Stockton, will be the speaker. The Ashton choir will furnish the music.

Coincident with their celebration of this anniversary three American Lutherans are uniting in the formation of the "American Lutheran Church." These bodies represent 500,000 baptized members. They have been known hitherto as the Buffalo Synod, the Iowa Synod and the Joint Synod, of Ohio. The merger meeting will be held at Toledo, Ohio, next month.

Died in Iowa
Rev. C. W. Lahman received word Tuesday morning of the death of Alex Miller, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Miller, at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Monday night. The deceased was a resident of this place several years ago. His father being Gabriel Miller, who conducted a store here at one time. His wife was Maggie Lahman, eldest sister of the late John D. Lahman, she having departed this life several years ago. His illness was not of long duration, but owing to his advanced age of about 87 years the doctors could do but little. The remains were brought to Dixon yesterday afternoon and taken to the Emmert cemetery for burial. Brief funeral services were conducted by Rev. O. D. Buck, of the Church of the Brethren. Among the relatives present from out of town, were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lahman, of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, Mr. Will Lahman, of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Cyr and Miss Marie Downing, of Aurora.

Charles Strong Dead
Mrs. R. W. Sith received a letter Monday morning from Mrs. Charles Strong, at Mahomet, Ill., which stated that Mr. Strong passed away and was buried June 11. He had been ill four months, the last two of which he was confined in a hospital at Urbana. The cause of his death was cancer of the stomach. Mr. and Mrs. Strong resided here several years having purchased what is known as the Zug property, now owned by S. Herbst. They left here about two years ago.

The Southern Cross' Last Flight

Here is probably the last picture you will ever see of Major Charles Kingsford-Smith, famous alrman with the plane Southern Cross in which he flew around the world. This picture was taken as Kingsford-Smith landed the historic plane at Santa Maria, Calif., and presented it to G. Allan Hancock, wealthy Santa Maria oil man and sportsman who originally donated it, and who will now place it in a museum. Left to right are Hancock, Radio Operator John Stannage, Navigator J. P. Saul and Kingsford-Smith.

and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yocum, south of town, to enjoy the Yocum family reunion. Each family came with well-filled baskets to enjoy a scramble dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Yocum, who have been visiting with the former's sons and other relatives. After the delicious dinner was served, an enjoyable afternoon was spent in games, music and visiting.

build a home of your own

You could choose no better time to build. Materials are cheap. Labor is plentiful. A house represents the wisest investment of the day.

Creo-Dipt Stained Shingles on roof and sidewalls actually save enough in upkeep to pay for themselves in 5 to 7 years. On old homes, Creo-Dipts can be laid right over old roofs and sidewalls at a cost of no more than two repaintings.

Let us tell you more about Creo-Dipts ... their low cost, their low upkeep.
